FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
EASTERN DIVISION

Shenzhen Yibaifen E-commerce
Co., Ltd.,

Plaintiff,

v.

THE PARTNERSHIPS and UNIN-CORPORATED ASSOCIATIONS
IDENTIFIED ON SCHEDULE "A",

Defendants.

Case No. 24-CV-11664

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Shenzhen Yibaifen E-commerce Co., Ltd. ("Yibaifen"), by and through its attorneys, The Law Offices of Konrad Sherinian, LLC, hereby brings the present action against the Partnerships and Unincorporated Associations (collectively, "Defendants") identified on Schedule A attached to the complaint and alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This is an action for patent infringement. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over the federal claims in this action pursuant to the provisions of the Patent Act, 35 U.S.C. § 1, et seq., 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a)-(b) and 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

2. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391 and this Court may properly exercise personal jurisdiction over Defendants. Each of the Defendants directly targets business activities toward consumers in the United States, including Illinois, through their operation of, or assistance in the operation of, the fully interactive, commercial Internet stores operating under the seller aliases and online marketplace accounts identified in Schedule A attached hereto (collectively, the “Seller Aliases”). Schedule A identifies the infringing sellers of Plaintiff’s Design Patent. Specifically, Defendants are involved in the production, listing for sale, sale, and, on information and belief, the shipping of products to Illinois residents that use infringing products featuring Yibaifen’s patented design to residents of Illinois. Each of the Defendants is committing tortious acts in Illinois, is engaging in interstate commerce, is targeting sales to Illinois residents, and has wrongfully caused Yibaifen substantial injury in the State of Illinois.

3. This Court has personal jurisdiction over each Defendant, in that each Defendant conducts significant business in Illinois and in this judicial district, and the acts and events giving rise to this lawsuit of which each Defendant stands accused were undertaken in Illinois and in this judicial district.

NATURE OF THE CASE

4. This action has been filed by Yibaifen to combat e-commerce store operators who trade upon Yibaifen’s reputation, goodwill and patent by making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing into the United States for subsequent sale or use the same unauthorized and unlicensed product, namely the cushion apparatus, such as the one shown in Exhibit 1, that infringes Yibaifen’s patented design, U.S. Patent No. D1,041,204 (the “Infringing Products”). Defendants create e-commerce stores operating under one or more Seller Aliases that are making, using, offering for sale, selling, and/or importing into the United States for subsequent sale or use Infringing Products to unknowing consumers. E-commerce stores operating under the Seller Aliases share unique identifiers establishing a logical relationship between them, suggesting that Defendants' operation arises out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences. Defendants attempt to avoid and mitigate liability by operating under one or more Seller Aliases to conceal both their identities and the full scope and interworking of their operation. Yibaifen has filed this action to combat Defendants' infringement of its patented design, as well as to protect unknowing consumers from purchasing Infringing Products over the Internet. Yibaifen has been and continues to be irreparably damaged from the loss of its lawful patent to exclude others from making, using, selling, offering for sale, copying, distributing and importing its patented design as a result of Defendants' actions and seeks injunctive and monetary relief.

PARTIES

5. Plaintiff Shenzhen Yibaifen E-commerce Co., Ltd. is a Chinese company having its principal place of business in the city of Shenzhen, Guangdong Province, China.

6. Yibaifen has been engaged in the business of designing, manufacturing and marketing consumer products, such as cushions, (collectively, the "Yibaifen Products"). Yibaifen Products can be purchased from e-commerce platforms, such as eBay.com, Walmart.com and Amazon.com. Since at least the beginning of 2024, Yibaifen has marketed, advertised, promoted, distributed and sold Yibaifen Products to consumers in the United States. Yibaifen Products have become very popular, driven by Yibaifen's arduous quality standards and Yibaifen Products’ unique and innovative design. As a result, among the purchasing public, genuine Yibaifen Products are instantly recognizable as such. In the United States and around the world, the Yibaifen brand has come to symbolize high quality cushions.

7. Yibaifen Products are known for their distinctive patented designs. These designs are broadly recognized by consumers. Cushions styled after these designs are associated with the quality and innovation that the public has come to expect from Yibaifen Products. Yibaifen uses these designs in connection with its Yibaifen Products, including, but not limited to, the following patented design (“Patents”), herein referred to as the “Yibaifen Design.”

Patent Number	Claim	Issue Date
D1041204		Sep. 10, 2024

8. Yibaifen is the lawful assignee of all right, title, and interest in and to the Yibaifen Design. The D1041204 patent for the Yibaifen Design was lawfully issued on September 10, 2024, with Yanbin Guan as the first named inventor. Attached hereto as Exhibit 2 is a true and correct copy of the United States Patent for the Yibaifen Design.

9. Defendants are individuals and business entities of unknown makeup who own and/or operate one or more of the e-commerce stores under at least the Seller Aliases identified on Schedule A and/or other seller aliases not yet known to Yibaifen. On information and belief, Defendants reside and/or operate in the People's Republic of China or other foreign jurisdictions with lax intellectual property enforcement systems or redistribute products from the same or similar sources in those locations. Defendants have the capacity to be sued pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 17(b).

10. On information and belief, Defendants either individually or jointly, operate one or more e-commerce stores under the Seller Aliases listed in Schedule A attached hereto. Tactics used by Defendants to conceal their identities and the full scope of their operation make it virtually impossible for Yibaifen to discover Defendants' true identities and the exact interworking of their network. If Defendants provide additional credible information regarding their identities, Yibaifen will take appropriate steps to amend the Complaint.

DEFENDANTS' UNLAWFUL CONDUCT

11. In recent years, Yibaifen has identified numerous fully interactive, e-commerce stores, including those operating under the Seller Aliases, which were offering for sale and/or selling Infringing Products on online marketplace platforms such as Amazon, eBay, AliExpress, Alibaba, Wish.com, Walmart, Etsy, and DHgate, including the e-commerce stores operating under the Seller Aliases. The Seller Aliases target consumers in this Judicial District and throughout the United States. According to a U.S. Customs and Border Protection (CBP) Report, in 2021, CBP made over 27,000 seizures of goods with intellectual property rights (IPR) violations totaling over $3.3 billion, an increase of $2.0 billion from 2020. Intellectual Property Rights Seizure Statistics, Fiscal Year 2021, U.S. Customs and Border Protection (Exhibit 3). Of the 27,000 in total IPR seizures, over 24,000 came through international mail and express courier services (as opposed to containers), 51 percent of which originated from China and Hong Kong. Id.

12. Third party service providers like those used by Defendants do not adequately subject new sellers to verification and confirmation of their identities, allowing infringers to “routinely use false or inaccurate names and addresses when registering with these e-commerce platforms.” Exhibit 4, Daniel C.K. Chow, Alibaba, Amazon, and Counterfeiting in the Age of the Internet, 40 NW. J. INT’L L. & BUS. 157, 186 (2020); see also, report on “Combating Trafficking in Counterfeit and Pirated Goods” prepared by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security’s Office of Strategy, Policy, and Plans (Jan. 24, 2020), attached as Exhibit 5 and finding that on “at least some e-commerce platforms, little identifying information is necessary for [an infringer] to begin selling” and recommending that “[s]ignificantly enhanced vetting of third-party sellers” is necessary. Infringers hedge against the risk of being caught and having their websites taken down from an e-commerce platform by preemptively establishing multiple virtual storefronts. Exhibit 5 at p. 22. Since platforms generally do not require a seller on a third-party marketplace to identify the underlying business entity, infringers can have many different profiles that can appear unrelated even though they are commonly owned and operated. Exhibit 5 at p. 39. Further, “E-commerce platforms create bureaucratic or technical hurdles in helping brand owners to locate or identify sources of [infringement].” Exhibit 4 at 186-187.

13. Defendants have targeted sales to Illinois residents by setting up and operating e-commerce stores that target United States consumers using one or more Seller Aliases, offer shipping to the United States, including Illinois, accept payment in U.S. dollars and/or funds from U.S. bank accounts, and, on information and belief, have sold Infringing Products to residents of Illinois.

14. Defendants concurrently employ and benefit from substantially similar advertising and marketing strategies. For example, Defendants facilitate sales by designing e-commerce stores operating under the Seller Aliases so that they appear to unknowing consumers to be authorized online retailers, outlet stores, or wholesalers. E-commerce stores operating under the Seller Aliases appear sophisticated and accept payment in U.S. dollars and/or funds from U.S. bank accounts via credit cards, Alipay, Amazon Pay, eBay, and/or PayPal. E-commerce stores operating under the Seller Aliases often include content and images that make it very difficult for consumers to distinguish such stores from an authorized retailer. Yibaifen has not licensed or authorized Defendants to use the Yibaifen Design, and none of the Defendants are authorized retailers of genuine Yibaifen Products.

15. E-commerce store operators like Defendants commonly engage in fraudulent conduct when registering the Seller Aliases by providing false, misleading and/or incomplete information to e-commerce platforms to prevent discovery of their true identities and the scope of their e-commerce operation.

16. E-commerce store operators like Defendants regularly register or acquire new seller aliases for the purpose of offering for sale and selling Infringing Products. Such seller alias registration patterns are one of many common tactics used by e-commerce store operators like Defendants to conceal their identities and the full scope and inter-working of their operation, and to avoid being shut down.

17. Even though Defendants operate under multiple fictitious aliases, the e-commerce stores operating under the Seller Aliases often share unique identifiers, such as templates with common design elements that intentionally omit any contact information or other information for identifying Defendants or other Seller Aliases they operate or use. E-commerce stores operating under the Seller Aliases include other notable common features, such as use of the same registration patterns, accepted payment methods, check-out methods, keywords, advertising tactics, similarities in price and quantities, the same incorrect grammar and misspellings, and/or the use of the same text and images. Additionally, Infringing Products for sale by the Seller Aliases bear similar irregularities and indicia of being unauthorized to one another, suggesting that the Infringing Products were manufactured by and come from a common source and that Defendants are inter-related.

18. E-commerce store operators like Defendants are in constant communication with each other and regularly participate in QQ.com chat rooms and through websites such as sellerdefense.cn, kaidianyo.com and kuajingvs.com regarding tactics for operating multiple accounts, evading detection, pending litigation, and potential new lawsuits.

19. Infringers such as Defendants typically operate under multiple seller aliases and payment accounts so that they can continue operation despite Yibaifen's enforcement. E-commerce store operators like Defendants maintain off-shore bank accounts and regularly move funds from their financial accounts to off-shore accounts outside the jurisdiction of this Court to avoid payment of any monetary judgment awarded to Yibaifen.

Indeed, analysis of financial account transaction logs from previous similar cases indicates that off-shore infringers regularly move funds from U.S.-based financial accounts to off-shore accounts outside the jurisdiction of this Court.

20. Defendants are working in active concert to knowingly and willfully manufacture, import, distribute, offer for sale, and sell Infringing Products in the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences. Upon information and belief, Defendants, without any authorization or license from Yibaifen, have jointly and severally, knowingly and willfully offered for sale, sold, and/or imported into the United States for subsequent resale or use the same product that infringes directly and/or indirectly the Yibaifen Design.

21. Defendants' infringement of the Yibaifen Design in the making, using, offering for sale, selling, and/or importing into the United States for subsequent sale or use of the Infringing Products was willful.

22. Defendants' infringement of the Yibaifen Design in connection with the making, using, offering for sale, selling, and/or importing into the United States for subsequent sale or use of the Infringing Products, including the making, using, offering for sale, selling, and/or importing into the United States for subsequent sale or use of Infringing Products into Illinois, is irreparably harming Yibaifen.

COUNT I PATENT INFRINGEMENT
(35 U.S.C. § 271)

23. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference the previous paragraphs of this Complaint.

24. Defendants are making, using, offering for sale, selling, and/or importing into the United States for subsequent sale or use Infringing Products that infringe directly and/or indirectly the ornamental design claimed in the Yibaifen Design disclosed and claimed in U.S. Patent No. D1,041,204.

25. Defendants have infringed the Yibaifen Design through the aforesaid acts and will continue to do so unless enjoined by this Court. Defendants' wrongful conduct has caused Yibaifen to suffer irreparable harm resulting from the loss of its lawful patent rights to exclude others from making, using, selling, offering for sale, and importing the patented invention. Yibaifen is entitled to injunctive relief pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 283.

26. Yibaifen is entitled to recover damages adequate to compensate for the infringement, including Defendants' profits pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 289. Yibaifen is entitled to recover any other damages as appropriate pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully prays that this Court enter judgment against Defendants as follows:

WHEREFORE, Yibaifen prays for judgment against Defendants as follows:

1. That Defendants, their affiliates, officers, agents, servants, employees, attorneys, confederates, and all persons acting for, with, by, through, under or in active concert with them be temporarily, preliminarily, and permanently enjoined and restrained from:
 - a. making, using, offering for sale, selling, copying, reproducing, distributing, advertising, and/or importing into the United States for subsequent sale or

- use the Infringing Product that use Plaintiff's Patents;
 - b. aiding, abetting, contributing to, or otherwise assisting anyone in making, using, offering for sale, selling, and/or importing into the United States for subsequent sale or use the Infringing Product;
 - c. further infringing the Patents and damaging Plaintiff's goodwill; and
 - d. effecting assignments or transfers, forming new entities or associations or utilizing any other device for the purpose of circumventing or otherwise avoiding the prohibitions set forth in Subparagraphs (a) and (b).
2. Entry of an Order that, upon Yibaifen's request, those with notice of the injunction, including, without limitation, any online marketplace platforms such as eBay, AliExpress, Alibaba, Amazon, Wish.com, Walmart, Etsy, and DHgate (collectively, the "Third Party Providers") shall disable and cease displaying any advertisements used by or associated with Defendants in connection with the sale of the Infringing Product, and take all reasonable steps necessary to prevent links to the Defendant Internet Stores identified on Schedule A from displaying in search results, including, but not limited to, removing links to the Defendant Internet Stores from any search index;
 3. That Yibaifen be awarded such damages as it shall prove at trial against Defendants that are adequate to compensate Yibaifen for Defendants' infringement of the Yibaifen Design, but in no event less than a reasonable royalty for the use made of the invention by the Defendants, together with interest and costs, pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284;

4. That the amount of damages awarded to Yibaifen to compensate Yibaifen for infringement of the Yibaifen Design be increased by three times the amount thereof, as provided by 35 U.S.C. § 284;
5. In the alternative, that Yibaifen be awarded all profits realized by Defendants from Defendants' infringement of the Yibaifen Design, pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 289;
6. That Yibaifen be awarded its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs; and
7. Award any and all other relief that this Court deems just and proper.
